ABOUT UNIVERSITY

This University was established in 2003 to provide a significant niche in the education and research of Ayurveda, Homeopathy, Unani and Naturopathy & Yogic Sciences. Since then University has progressively emerged as a leading institution in AYUSH health care system in India. The University is committed to create an ambience for nurturing innovation, creativity and excellence within its students. We strongly support to work in the field of interdisciplinary research and development for the benefit of Academicians, Clinicians, Researchers.

We emphasise on developing all round leadership skills. We are proud to say that the University is an ideal place to exploit the synergy within the Ayurveda System of Medicine. By doing so, we believe that the University will continue to create unique and noble programs to make significant contributions in the development of Ayurved. We are confident that all our efforts will grow into remarkable epitomes of achievements in the larger academic parlance. We hope that our efforts will produce fruitful results in all the major areas of Ayurved viz. academic innovation, top-tier journal publications, citations and technology developments.

ABOUT SODH MIMAMSA 2023

Research is a continuous process. The advancement of every field of science is subject to the concerned research. No science can attain the heights without due research and without any evidence of research, it is neither accepted by the public nor by the scientists. Research is continuously process in the every field but research has a well-defined steps and format for conducting as well as presenting it. If a research had been conducted by following ethics and norms of research then the outcome of this research will be accepted wholehearted by the world.
